FdA Early Childhood Studies

The Foundation Degree course is designed to meet the professional and personal learning needs of all those working with young children and their families. The course aims to support and enhance your practice, which will also enable you to add value to your workplace by putting what you learn on the course into practice. Students who have completed the course can 'top-up' their degree to honours level by undertaking further study on the BA Early Childhood Studies.

BA Extended Degree in Early Childhood Studies

This four-year extended degree provides the background necessary for degree-level study in Early Childhood Studies, and is aimed at those who do not have the required qualifications for entry at level 4.

BA Early Childhood Studies

The BA Early Childhood Studies degree is a vocational course designed for those working with young children to gain an accredited qualification in their field. It can be taken as a full or part-time degree and students may choose to either attend classes at the University in the day or evening or study by distance learning or in mixed mode.

Funding for FdA and BA

Students either:

- apply through their employer for financial assistance with the costs of the course and possibly through their Local Authority
- apply for the statutory student support for full or part-time students through Student Finance England/Wales/SAAS/NI – www.gov.uk/student-finance

MA Early Childhood Studies

This distance-learning programme is designed for professionals working within the early childhood workforce, including those who may not be working directly with children but are involved in developing the early childhood workforce, such as further education lecturers and local authority advisors. This course is eligible for the Postgraduate Loan:
