Three-year degrees

London Met is offering £1,000 cash bursaries (non-repayable) every progressive year to students on a full-time undergraduate degree programme on a London Met campus course, who are also receiving the full means-tested Maintenance Loan (see full eligibility criteria on page two). £3,000 cash in total over your three-year course.

Extended degrees

Where applicable, the bursaries for our extended degrees are comprised of a £1,000 bursary in each year of your four-year course, plus a progression award (when you progress from Year 0 into Year 1), an achievement award (if you achieve 75% or more for your final mark in Year 0), and a fee reduction meaning that the usual price of £9,000 per year is reduced to a lower amount for Year 0 of your course. All UK and EU students are eligible for fee reductions. You are only eligible for the bursary (£1,000 in each year of your four year course) if you meet the eligibility criteria.

How to apply

Full-time students - The University will use the information you have provided to the Student Loans Company (SLC) when you applied online for your fee and maintenance loans, so long as you have agreed to share this on your SLC declaration. Bursary payments are made automatically by the SLC direct to eligible students in two instalments of £500 (at the end of October and the end of February for students starting in September, and at the end of February and the end of May for students starting their course in January).

Written confirmation of the bursary amount is sent by the SLC to the home address you provided them with. The University cannot authorise the SLC to change these address details.

There is a two-week delay between the University approving the bursary by confirming attendance to the SLC, and payment into your nominated bank account.

Part-time students - Please contact the University's fees team at feequery@londonmet.ac.uk for an application form and notes on how to apply.
