	your total claim. Some two year olds may also be entitled to free early learning places; this is based on an income assessment. Alternatively, parents of three and four year olds may be entitled to 30 hours' free childcare during term-time. To qualify, parents must work a minimum of 16 hours per week at National Minimum or Living Wage. Please note, you cannot take up the 30 hours' free childcare in addition to accessing Student Finance England's Childcare Grant. www.gov.uk/help-with-child-care-costs/free-childcare-and-education-for-2-to-4-year-olds

Student Finance England's Maintenance Loan is calculated to support you for term-time only with the expectation that you will supplement your income by working over the long summer vacation. Lone parents who cannot work during the summer may be entitled to claim Income Support over the months of July and August. Claims should be submitted from the last week in June. Certain lone parents may be entitled to Income Support all year e.g. postgraduate students with zero income. For information about making a benefits claim, you can call 0800 055 6688. For JSA/IS/ESA call 0345 608 8545. For Universal Credit call 0345 600 0723. Make sure you have your National Insurance number and bank details to hand.
