P.K.937 'TREVISO' TABLE

The 'Adagio' and 'Andante' chairs make a happy partnership with 'Treviso' tables in Rosewood Veneer with Black metal underframe.

H

He receives comfort like cold porridge'
Shakespeare

The character referred to in this passage from 'The Tempest' would clearly have been no collector of Parker-Knolls. Beds of nails would seem to have been more his mark. Fortunately, however, most people enjoy their comforts, and Parker-Knoll comfort in particular.

In this leaflet you will find a positive galaxy of chairs and settees . . . some contemporary, some traditional, some very reasonable and some, very reasonably, on the expensive side. Wood finishes of all models can be coloured to your precise requirements without extra charge.

There is sure to be a good selection of Parker-Knoll at your local furnishers, and the full range can always be seen at any of the Parker-Knoll Showrooms which are listed on the back cover.
