history

COMMITTED TO CRAFTSMANSHIP FOR OVER
75 YEARS.

Since 1916, when Nathan opened its showroom doors in London, the company has prided itself on the "finest workmanship, well-seasoned woods and the best finish".

Today, although the range of Nathan Furniture has expanded and the styles now include both classic and contemporary, the commitment to craftsmanship is as strong as ever. The attention to detail remains impeccable from dovetail joints to decorative cross-banding... with each individually made piece combining modern techniques with traditions of quality.

Whether you opt for an elegant dining room suite, a wall cabinet or perhaps a home entertainment unit to house your stereo and CD system... when you select Nathan, it truly is a decision well made!

Enjoy browsing through the rest of this brochure, gathering ideas on how Nathan Furniture can adapt to your own home and personal sense of style... then let imagination turn into reality and experience for yourself the fine quality and timeless design that is the hallmark of Nathan Furniture.

quality

FURNITURE OF DISTINCTION, BUILT FOR LIFE.

What do you really require from your furniture?

If you answered "quality"... "distinctive style"... and "versatility", then Nathan has exactly what you want.

Nathan is Britain's leading manufacturer of quality living and dining room furniture in a variety of wood finishes.

You'll see our designs are understated and elegant, with classical looks. Looks that add character and warmth to your home today, tomorrow... and always!

Even if you move home, even if your lifestyle changes, Nathan Furniture maintains its enduring appeal.

the pembroke collection

A STYLISH STATEMENT IN DEEP, RICH TONES.

True elegance is always in style, and the Pembroke Collection is no exception to the rule.

From its graceful, classical lines to its distinctive detail, here is a range of furniture that reflects your good taste... today and in the years to come.

A WEALTH OF CHOICE,
TRADITIONALLY CRAFTED FOR TIMELESS APPEAL.

With its deep, rich tones, furniture from the Pembroke Collection is very much more than merely functional. Each piece is a focal point - simply styled and beautifully crafted.

For your dining room, there are tables and chairs, base units and corner units. For your living room, there are wall cabinets and bookcases, as well as matching units to store your TV, video and stereo.

THOSE WHO APPRECIATE QUALITY
KNOW WHERE TO LOOK FOR IT.

Look at the all-important attention to detail. Crystal cut glass in the display cabinets... attractive brass handles... delicate cornices on wall cabinets and attractive overhanging tops on the base units. From the subtle down lighting in the display cabinets to the traditional dovetail joints, you know that every piece in the Pembroke Collection is built with craftsmanship and quality.

Just one look at this classically styled collection of fine furniture and it's easy to imagine how it would make any house a home to be proud of.

Practical for everyday use, and elegant when you entertain, the Pembroke Collection is a choice you can make today... and feel just as confident about in the future.

features

As you would expect from a company with a long tradition of producing quality furniture, everything in the Pembroke Collection is built with the closest attention to detail.

Take the dovetail joints in all our drawers. A craftsman finish that ensures you will still be enjoying your furniture for years to come.

But quality is not only about the care we insist is taken when producing the Pembroke Collection... it is the additional features that are integral to the design and which make the product individually distinct.

Subtle down lighting in the cabinets ensure that all your treasured possessions are displayed to perfection, whilst elegant green baize lined cutlery trays are not only practical but add that final finishing touch.

& fabrics

To appeal to the most individual of tastes, all the Pembroke Collection chairs are available in a choice of 23 fabrics.

From exquisite patterned weaves to simple, understated velvets all these coverings are both hard wearing and rigorously tested to conform to British flammability regulations.

Your local Nathan stockist will be delighted to show you samples of the full range of fabrics on offer.

How can you house an ever-growing range of entertainment equipment discreetly? With six versatile stereo, CD, TV and video units to choose from, the Pembroke Collection's range of home entertainment units will provide the neat solution.

Now all your equipment can be stored away tidily whilst still enhancing the style that you have succeeded in creating throughout your home.

Each piece combines practical, modern features such as easy-access lift-up tops, toughened glass-fronted doors which allow for the use of remote controls, adjustable shelving, and specialist racking systems - with traditional craftsmanship.

IMPORTANT NOTES

The solid woods used in the construction of the Pembroke Collection are Sapele, Utile and Beech which are combined with specially manufactured wood-based panels which have been developed for furniture production. These panels are skilfully finished using a selection of Sapele and Utile veneers. Sapele is used as the main external veneer because of its superior quality, giving enhanced grain and lustre.

The beauty of natural wood is that every piece has its own distinct characteristics. Therefore, no two items of furniture will ever look exactly the same. Wood also mellows with age. This means that new items will initially be a different shade from the older ones. However, they will eventually mellow to blend with existing pieces. All measurements quoted are to the nearest 1/4". We reserve the right to alter specifications and prices without notice.

Whilst in this brochure we have made every effort to reproduce accurately the colours of our wood finishes and fabrics, we strongly advise our customers to visit our stockists before they make their final choice.
