

RESEARCHING HOUSING, CONSTRUCTION AND CITY PANNING IN THE TUC LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

The TUC Library Collections transferred to the London Metropolitan University in 1996. The holdings include not only union publications and documents relating to working conditions and industrial relations in the UK and overseas, but also material collected from the various campaigns and policy areas in which the TUC has been involved since its foundation in 1868. Visit us to read original documents from the beginning of the 20th century on:

- Garden cities and New Towns
- Housing policies and programmes
- Regional planning and development
- Housing design
- Trade unions and working conditions in the construction industry
- Urban planning

The TUC Library Collections are accessible in the university's Special Collections Reading Room. The collections are available by appointment only for external visitors. See Access details on the Special Collections page of the University website for details.
